

2017 STATE TEAM MEMBER'S AGREEMENT

By applying for nomination as an Athlete to the Queensland State Team, you are accepting responsibility to comply with the code of conduct detailed below. You also agree to the consequences of any breach of the code of conduct, depending on the nature and severity of the breach in accordance with the Queensland Canoeing Inc (QC) Team Selection Policy. These may include:

- Eviction from the Queensland Canoe State Team.
- Fine or suspension by Queensland Canoeing.
- And/or legal proceedings - civil or criminal for conduct unlawful under State or Federal law.

Whilst performing your duties, as a member of the Queensland Canoe State Team you agree to adhere to the following code of conduct:

1. To participate within the rules and spirit of the Australian Canoeing Competition Rules and Regulations.
2. Attend any training sessions, camps and competitions at times advised by the Qld team Manager or Queensland Canoeing. If unable to attend for a valid reason to do so, I will inform the coach as soon as is practical.
3. Respect and follow the directions of competition officials, coaches and team officials.
4. Support and assist other Qld team members both on and off the water.
5. Respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
6. Refrain from using abusive language and / or violent behaviour towards any athlete, competition official or spectator at all times. This behaviour is unacceptable and renders an athlete liable to serious consequences, as is any sexual, racial and other form of harassment, as described in the Member Protection Policy of AC (available on the AC website).
7. Participate for your own enjoyment and benefit, not just to please parents and coaches.
8. Be professional and accept responsibility for your actions.
9. Maintain a designated level of fitness and a standard of competitiveness prior to the relevant event for which you have been selected. If an injury or illness is sustained, prior or during the competition, team management or Queensland Canoeing is to be notified in writing.
